

Florida History Topics (compiled by FHD)

- A Stand against the Dredges: Stopping the Cross-Florida Barge Canal
- African American Soldiers of Fort Mose: Defending Freedom in Florida
- African Medical Missions of Dr. William Allen
- Alexander McGillivray: Statesman for the Creek Indians
- Anita Bryant and the Struggle For and Against Gay Rights
- Ban the Bottle: The Crusade for Prohibition in Florida
- Barbara Capitman and the Preservation of Art Deco Hotels on Miami Beach
- Battle of Natural Bridge: The Defense of Tallahassee
- Battle of Okeechobee: Seminole Indians Stand Their Ground
- Black Men in Blue Coats: African Americans at the Battle of Ocean Pond
- Black Seminoles and the Second Seminole War
- Bruce Smathers and the Preservation of Florida's Historic Capitol
- Chloe Merrick Reed: Public Education for all Floridians
- Clara Frye: Hospital Care for All People
- Claude Pepper: Taking a Stand for the Elderly
- Comandante Garcia: Guardian of the Lower Apalachicola, Foe of American Expansion
- Competing Stands on Immigration: The Elian Gonzalez Case
- Conscientious Objectors and Their Contributions to Florida's Home Front in World War II
- Conflicting Stands on the Florida Frontier: European Rivalry for La Florida
- Cyrus Teed and the Idea of Koreshan Unity
- Ending Convict Labor Leasing in Florida
- Environmental Activism: Marjory Stoneman Douglas's Fight to Save the Everglades
- Father Augustin Verot, the "Rebel Bishop"
- Fighting Fidel: Anti-Castro Activism in Florida
- Florida Teachers' Strike of 1968
- Florida's First Black Cabinet Member: The Political Career of Jonathan C. Gibbs
- Flying the Confederate Flag: Heritage or Hatred?
- Gideon v. Wainwright and the Right to Legal Representation
- Governor Rubin Askew: Taking a Stand on Government in the Sunshine
- Governor Ossian Hart's Struggle for Reconstruction in Florida
- Governor Richard Keith Call: Outspoken Opponent of Florida's Secession
- Harry T. Moore: Architect of the NAACP in Florida
- Jackie Robinson's Stand at the Plate: Breaking into the Big League
- Joe Lang Kershaw Axes the Cane Pole Tax
- John G. Riley Fights for Educational Opportunity
- John Pennekamp and the Preservation of Florida's Coral Reefs
- Jose Martí: Fighting for Cuban Independence
- Julee Panton and Early Civil Rights in Pensacola
- Kennedy and Khrushchev: The Cuban Missile Crisis of 1962
- Lawton Chiles Takes on Big Tobacco
- Lieutenant Adam Slemmer: Holding Fort Pickens
- Major Dade's Last Stand: The Dade Battle in the Second Seminole War
- Mary McLeod Bethune: A Life Devoted to Education
- May Mann Jennings Speaks Out for Women's Rights
- Osceola and Seminole Opposition to Indian Removal
- Pilloried, Branded, and Imprisoned: Abolitionist Jonathan Walker's Courageous Stand
- Roxcy Bolton Fights for the Equal Rights Amendment in Florida
- Standing Tall: Josiah T. Walls, Florida's First Black Congressman
- State of Florida v. Sister Mary Thomasine: The Right to Teach Black Students
- Taking a Constitutional Stand in Florida: The 1868 Delegates and Their Mission
- The Civil Rights Stand of Governor LeRoy Collins

- The Johns Committee: Fighting Communism or Witch Hunting?
- The Political Career of David Levy Yulee, the Nation's First Jewish Senator
- The Reverend C. K. Steele and the Tallahassee Bus Boycott of 1956
- The Reverend C. K. Steele, Governor LeRoy Collins, and the Integration of Florida Schools
- The Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr.: Taking a Civil Rights Stand in St. Augustine
- The Seminole Wars, 1818–1858: Fighting for Their Land
- The Stars at Noon: Jacqueline Cochran and the Breaking of Aviation's Barriers
- Thomas D. Tucker: Higher Education for African Americans
- Union or Secession? Opposing Stands of Governors Call and Milton on the Eve of the Civil War
- Vernon McDaniel: The Fight for Equal Pay
- Virgil D. Hawkins: Desegregating Florida's Law School
- William Augustus Bowles: Creating a Muskogee State

US History Topics (compiled by NHD)

- Taking a Stand Against the British: The Reorganization of the Continental Army at Valley Forge
- Roger Williams's Stand Against Exile: The Establishment of Rhode Island
- Thurgood Marshall: Taking a Stand in Court Against Segregation
- The Power of Words: Thomas Paine's Fight Against Tyranny
- The War on Poverty: Johnson Stands for "The Other America"
- Taking a Stand in Art: Copley's Artistic Fight Against the British
- Horace Mann and the Fight for Quality Education
- Protecting the Environment: The Establishment of the National Park Service
- Protestants and the Fight for Temperance: The Founding of the American Temperance Society
- William Jennings Bryan: Standing Against Evolution
- Nat Turner: Taking a Stand Against Slavery
- Standing for Separation of Church and School: Engel vs. Vitale
- Muhammad Ali: Taking a Stand Against the Vietnam War
- Andrew Jackson's Stand Against the Bank
- Betty Friedan: Taking a Stand For Women's Rights
- The Pullman Strike of 1894: Taking a Stand for the Workers
- Taking a Stand Standing against Federal Authority: The Plight of the Farmers during the Whiskey Rebellion
- Standing Against the British: The Boston Tea Party and Its Consequences
- Rosa Parks: Sitting Down to Take a Stand
- The Fight for Social Equality: Jane Addams and Hull House
- William Lloyd Garrison: Taking a Stand with Words
- Fighting Unemployment: The Journey of Coxey's Army
- Taking a Stand Against Kingship: George Washington's Denial of Power
- Standing Against the President: Congress's Victory in Radical Reconstruction Against Johnson
- Taking a Stand Against the Trusts: Teddy Roosevelt as a Trust Buster
- Standing Against Big Business: The Sherman Antitrust Act
- Defiance in Leaps and Bounds: Jesse Owens and the 1936 Berlin Olympics
- Claudette Colvin and the Montgomery Bus Boycott
- The Astor Place Riots: Taking a Stand for Theater
- Standing Against Conquest: Chief Osceola and the Seminole Indians