

Andrew Jackson

Directions: Read History Alive! Chapter 14 to find out if each statement is true or false. If the statement is false, correct it.

Introduction

1. T F John Quincy Adams and Andrew Johnson were the presidential candidates in 1828.
2. T F During 1828 campaign, candidates talked trash about each other, a practice known as “Fake News.”
3. T F Jackson was mostly supported by rich and upper class people.

14.1 From the Frontier to the White House

4. T F When Jackson was a boy his family was rich.
5. T F Between the presidential elections of 1824 and 1828, Jackson split away from the Republican Party to join a new political party, the Democratic Party.
6. T F Jacksonian Democracy is the idea that common people should control their government.

14.2 The Inauguration of Andrew Jackson

7. T F In the 1820s suffrage was expanded to include white men who were not property owners.
8. T F In the 1828 election, over a million people voted for president, which is twice as many as voted in 1824.

14.3 Jackson’s Approach to Governing

9. T F The “spoils system” is the practice of replacing government employees with the winning candidate’s supporters.
10. In “The Tory Mill” political cartoon, the cartoonist thinks that Jackson is a good/ bad person. Explain.

14.4 The Nullification Crisis

11. T F During the Nullification Crisis, South Carolina threatened to secede from the Union if the federal government tried to enforce the tariffs of 1828 and 1832.
12. In the “Despotism” political cartoon, the cartoonist thinks that Jackson is a good/ bad person. Explain.

14.5 Jackson Battles the Bank of the United States

13. T F Jackson disliked the Bank of the United States because it had a monopoly over federal deposits and benefited rich investors from eastern states at the expense of farmers and workers.
14. T F Jackson “killed” the Bank of the United States.
15. In the “Many Headed Monster” political cartoon, the cartoonist thinks that Jackson is a good/ bad person. How do you know?

14.6 Jackson’s Indian Policy

16. T F White Americans wanted American Indians to be removed to the west side of the Mississippi River because they wanted the Indians’ eastern lands for farming.
17. T F The Indian Removal Act was created to remove American Indians to Indian Territory, which is in the Rocky Mountains.
18. T F Jackson and the Supreme Court agreed that American Indians should be removed to Indian Territory.
19. T F The Trail of Tears was the name of the trip between the Cherokee homeland in Virginia and Indian Territory.
20. T F There are Seminoles in Florida today because some of their ancestors successfully avoided removal to Indian territory.